Forms

These forms are to help you solve a legal problem on your own. No attorney-client relationship is created between you or any Legal Services office by your use of these forms.

There are two types of forms listed on this page:

- Interactive forms - guide you through a series of questions and complete forms or letters using your answers.
- Example forms - provide a document where you fill out the answers directly on the form.

If there are forms you need that are not on this site, your local courthouse may have the forms you need.

Waiving Court Filing Fees

If you can't pay the court filings fees, you can fill out this form to see if you qualify to have the court fees waived.
